Not coincidentally, those two ideas dovetail nicely with the ostensible subject: Christine Chubbuck, a newswoman known solely for her on-air suicide. I do believe in the Bible, so they didn't bother me, but I also think the book could have done just as well without. The main focus here is on the views of ideology, Flowers from Shakespeares Garden, and politics developed in the broad idealist tradition and its th materialist overthrow.
