In East Germany the literary situation was very different from that of West Germany. The Muslims and Christians did not agree on the theological premises of their respective religious traditions, but the two communities engaged with each other in a civil and constructive manner. Since shortly after it began militarily occupying the Palestinian West Bank, East Jerusalem, and Gaza in the War, Israel has been colonizing them with Jewish settlers in violation of international law, part of an effort to cement control and prevent the establishment of a Palestinian state. In attempting to get at the heart of the matter, the book is a quick, extremely well-written novel with the MOST unexpected ending.
